

Four Seasons Solar Products LLC Partners with SupplyLogic, Inc. for Print Management Services

Hauppauge, NY. – December 31st 2008

SupplyLogic, Inc., an industry-leading Managed Service Provider (MSP) specializing in Print Management Services for corporate clients, announced today that it has signed an exclusive agreement with NY based Four Seasons Solar Products, a specialty manufacturer of seasonal screen enclosures, greenhouses, florida rooms and year-round sunrooms, solariums and conservatories.

As part of the agreement, SupplyLogic will provide Four Seasons' 300-plus franchise locations with an on-line ordering platform and complete print management services.

"Relying on SupplyLogic for our print management services allows us to focus on what we do best," said James Ruppel, Director of Marketing for Four Seasons Solar Products. "SupplyLogic has a strong reputation in the marketplace, and we are confident that this partnership will allow us to save money and to extend our production budget to high-value, revenue-generating marketing activities."

"Four Seasons is a leading franchisor and manufacturer in its field, and we believe we are uniquely suited to support their growing network of franchises. The transfer of the tactical print fulfillment responsibilities will free their revenue generators to focus on building their businesses." said Kevin F. Sherlock, Founder and Chief Executive Officer of SupplyLogic. "Furthermore, our value proposition will help Four Seasons Franchisees get more out of every marketing dollar they spend."
