

SupplyLogic Names Scott Gray, Vice President, Managed Services.

Hauppauge, NY. – March 2nd, 2009

SupplyLogic, Inc., located in Hauppauge, NY has named Scott Gray as Vice President of Managed Services. Scott has 10 years of experience managing the print supply chains of financial institutions including Morgan Stanley, Lehman Brothers, Goldman Sachs and Bear Stearns. He's an expert at strategic sourcing of commercial, financial and variable print as well as logistics and distribution. Scott has architected procurement solutions for over $500 million in print and related services -- improving quality, accuracy and turnaround time while saving over twenty-five percent of annualized spending.

Scott started his career as a management consultant for A. T. Kearney and Andersen Consulting, where he led business process reengineering, outsourcing and supplier development projects.

Scott received his Bachelor's degree from Dartmouth College and a Masters in Business Administration from Cornell University.

"Scott brings to SupplyLogic a wealth of corporate client experience in global sourcing and demand management." said Kevin F. Sherlock, Founder & Chief Executive Officer of SupplyLogic, Inc. "We are thrilled to have attracted a corporate professional who will bring best practices to our organization as we look to scale our Managed Services business."
